

Q: What is Bible Fellowship?

A: Gathering Together for Bible Study and Fellowship

The word “fellowship” comes from the Greek word, “koinonia,” which means we are as committed to each other as we are to Christ Himself. Bible study brings us together and fellowship connects us to one another in meaningful ways.

*“As iron sharpens iron,
so one man sharpens another.”
Proverbs 27:17*

Adult Bible Groups

There are many groups from which to choose for adults. Ages listed for each group are only suggested ranges. Feel free to visit several classes as you seek the best fit for you. A volunteer at one of the Welcome and Information Centers would be happy to assist you. Groups are listed by gender:

9:00 a.m.

Coed 25-60 Lisa Greene Room 426
This group meets to study God's word and how it applies to us today, while offering encouragement to one another.

Coed 35-65 Jason Bell, Chris Troutt Room 412
This group is for all ages—singles or couples interested in in-depth Bible study. "Explore the Bible" is used and class participation is welcome but not required.

Coed 45-55 Wayne Moore Room 414
This class includes lecture and discussion from the scriptures. Discussion, prayer and Bible reading is encouraged, but on a volunteer basis.

Coed 50+ Mike Harris Room 417
This class is for anyone looking to study the scriptures for guidance on how to live as Jesus would have us do.

Coed 40-75 Debbie Skaggs Room 424
"Special Blend" is a single adult class focusing on Bible study and application, developing lasting friendships and a line-line support system with monthly socials.

Coed 50+ Bobby Thompson Room 411
This class of singles and couples of varying ages enjoys close fellowship emotionally and spiritually. Monthly fellowship opportunities.

Coed 60+ Marshall & Jerry Sue Johnson Room 413
